

UNIVERSITY VIEW ACADEMY

For Immediate Release

Contact: Michael Marsh
225-421-2928
mmarsh@uview.academy

Chaislyn Jane King Nominated for International Award

Baton Rouge, LA, 3/27/2019- University View Academy senior Chaislyn Jane King will find out in May if she wins the Best Video award from the International Christian Film and Music Festival. The video features her song “Carole”. King works for “Be Our Guest Royal Princess Parties” in Prairieville where she dresses in Disney-themed costumes. One party was for a child with disabilities that inspired her to write the song. The star of the video is a child with Downs Syndrome. King is a singer-songwriter and actress from Baton Rouge, LA and has been an “American Idol” contestant. She will sing in an upcoming movie called “Teen Musical, the Movie” to be filmed in the New Orleans area in June.

University View Academy is a free, public K-12 online charter school that allows students to embrace technology, flourish through innovation and seek empowerment to become their best self. University View Academy was recently awarded the Innovation Education Award by the Louisiana Association of Public Charter Schools.

###